

GP LINK RECRUITMENT AUSTRALIA PTY LTD

ACN: 693 259 737

Australia Medical Recruitment Pricing Schedule 2026

As recruiters, we have one goal: ‘Matching the best GPs with the best GP jobs’

How do we do it?

Matching

We work to achieve a good match between a doctor and a practice. Our experience shows that a good match means doctors stay longer and work more effectively. We aim to present you with candidates that fit with the needs and culture of your practice as closely as possible. To achieve this, we advertise widely and filter applications to identify GPs who meet your requirements, therefore only presenting you with candidates who have a genuine interest in working with you. Historically, for every 3 interviews we schedule between you and the GP, at least 1 successful placement is made.

Contractual arrangements

If both the practice owners and the GPs express an interest in working together, GP Link will negotiate between the parties the terms of the contract and will assist in agreeing the contractual details. We aim to minimise the work required by the practice and aim to deliver a signed contract as quickly as possible. We encourage candidates to commit to ongoing placements to build relationships with a patient base.

Registration support for doctors based overseas

Most doctors sourced from overseas require extensive support for a period of 6–9 months as they work on arrangements to come to Australia. For most of this period, our GPs require our support several times a week to navigate the complex labyrinth of regulation as well as covering off everything they need to move to a new country. This support includes, but is not limited to:

- Preparation of AMC/EPIC documentation
- Liaison with the RACGP, AHPRA and Medicare, where we act as authorised agent of the doctor and deal with most issues that arise
- Assistance with visas and migration (involvement of migration agents incurs an additional cost)

The GP Link Difference

We make matches that are made to last

We want to place GPs in jobs where they stay for the long term because they are happy and engaged in the practice. Rather than making money by placing the same GP in clinic after clinic, we aim to find the best match so that doctors are more likely to stay longer term. We also rely heavily on referrals from our candidates, so we want to make sure they are 100% happy with our service.

We usually only submit each candidate to 2–3 practices. We don't just send you a barrage of CVs and expect you to sort through the rest. We aim to send you only GPs that are interested in your GP job and who we think are a good match for your practice.

We only work in General Practice

We are not a recruitment agency that just dabbles in GP jobs but mostly works with hospital doctors. All of our recruitment and consulting work is 100% focused on General Practice. We are focused and committed to the provision of recruitment and business solutions for Australian GP Practices.

We support the whole process

We check that GPs have the right type of registration, and that they will be able to obtain a provider number to work in your practice.

1. Recruitment fees

1.1 Permanent placement — full-time General Practitioner

A full-time placement is an engagement averaging eight (8) or more sessions (approximately 35 or more hours) per week. The total fee for an overseas-based GP is payable in two payments: the first 50% is invoiced when the doctor accepts your contract; the second 50% is invoiced when the doctor commences work for you. For Australian-based GPs, the full fee is invoiced when the placed doctor commences work. All fees are exclusive of GST.

Payment	Timing of payment	GP candidates based overseas	GP candidates based in Australia
1st Payment	Invoiced once the GP candidate accepts your contract	$12,500	$0
2nd Payment	Invoiced when the GP commences work for you	$12,500	$21,000
Total		$25,000	$21,000

1.2 Permanent placement — part-time General Practitioner

A part-time placement is an engagement averaging fewer than eight (8) sessions (approximately fewer than 35 hours) per week. The same payment structure and timing apply as for full-time placements. If a part-time placement increases to full-time hours within 12 months of commencement, the difference between the part-time and full-time fee becomes payable (clause 6 of the Recruitment Services Agreement).

Payment	Timing of payment	GP candidates based overseas	GP candidates based in Australia
1st Payment	Invoiced once the GP candidate accepts your contract	$10,500	$0
2nd Payment	Invoiced when the GP commences work for you	$10,500	$18,000
Total		$21,000	$18,000

Guarantee period and credits

A 12-week guarantee period applies to permanent placements. If our candidate leaves the practice within the following period (subject to the conditions in clause 7 of the Recruitment Services Agreement), you will receive credit towards future placements or services:

Up to 4 weeks	80% of the placement fee is credited for future placements or services
Between 4–8 weeks	50% of the placement fee is credited for future placements or services
Between 8–12 weeks	35% of the placement fee is credited for future placements or services

Please note all calculations are made on the candidate's last working day with the practice, not on the day they give notice of their intention to leave.

The guarantee only applies while your account is in good standing. Invoices are payable within seven (7) days of issue. If any invoice is not paid in full by its due date, all guarantee and credit entitlements are forfeited (clauses 6 and 7 of the Recruitment Services Agreement).

Any candidates based overseas that we present to you will be eligible for specialist registration (VR) once they have worked in Australia for 6–12 months (full-time). Most candidates already based in Australia will hold, or be immediately eligible for, specialist registration (VR).

By agreeing to these terms, you agree that you (and/or other related parties) will not under any circumstances require a doctor to contribute to payment of our recruitment fees — either directly or indirectly.

1.3 Locum placements

For locum (temporary) placements, our fee is 20% of the gross fees or billings payable to, or in respect of, the locum GP for the assignment, exclusive of GST, invoiced weekly and payable within seven (7) days.

If, within 12 months of the end of a locum assignment (or of our last presentation of the locum to you), you or a related entity engages that GP on a permanent or ongoing basis, the applicable permanent placement fee in sections 1.1–1.2 becomes payable in full, in addition to locum fees already invoiced.

2. Withdrawal of an accepted offer

If the client (i.e. the practice owners) withdraws their offer of a position after the candidate has signed a contract, the client is liable for 50% of the total applicable recruitment fee. This payment compensates GP Link and the candidate for the significant work and investment that both parties have undertaken to reach this point. This fee applies where the position is withdrawn due to operational reasons or any factors not related to the performance or availability of the doctor.

3. Agreement to terms and conditions

The client acknowledges that candidates introduced to the client are subject to our Recruitment Services Agreement, which follows in this document. This includes privacy and confidentiality provisions relating to the use and disclosure of information.

This agreement is accepted by signing electronically through the GP Link portal. When you sign, the details below are collected and stamped onto the execution page appended to your signed copy, which together with this document forms your agreement with us. A copy of the executed agreement is emailed to you for your records. Acceptance may also occur by email confirmation or by conduct, as set out in clause 1 of the Recruitment Services Agreement.

Full legal registered entity name	Collected at electronic signing
ABN / ACN	Collected at electronic signing
Full name of authorised representative	Collected at electronic signing
Job title	Collected at electronic signing
Signature of authorised representative	Drawn or typed at electronic signing
Date signed	Recorded automatically, with IP address and verification reference

Fee summary

Placement	Fee	Timing
Full-time — overseas GP	$25,000 (two payments of $12,500)	On acceptance; on commencement
Full-time — Australian GP	$21,000	On commencement
Part-time — overseas GP	$21,000 (two payments of $10,500)	On acceptance; on commencement
Part-time — Australian GP	$18,000	On commencement
Locum GP	20% of gross fees/billings payable to the locum	Invoiced weekly

All fees are exclusive of GST. Invoices are payable within seven (7) days of issue.

Recruitment Services Agreement

1. APPLICATION

- 1.1 This document sets out the terms on which we offer to supply our placement services to you and is accompanied by our fee schedule. These terms apply if you accept them: by signing electronically through the GP Link portal (including by drawing or typing a signature); by signing the fee schedule and returning it to us by email; by sending an email to us with the word "Approved" in the email; or your consent is inferred if you continue to use our placement services after having received a copy of this Recruitment Services Agreement and the fee schedule.
- 1.2 Acceptance may be express, implied or by conduct and, without limiting the variety of circumstances that might constitute acceptance, occurs if you:
- (a) tell us you have accepted them; or
 - (b) ask us for help to fill a position after you have received a copy of them; or
 - (c) use or disclose, without our consent and in connection with an offer of work that is or may be made by you or any other person to our candidate, any personal information about our candidate that we have provided to you (including the name or contact details of our candidate).
- 1.3 These terms apply to your engagement of our placement services on a contingent basis (i.e. where we are only paid a fee if one of our candidates whom we have presented to you obtains a position with you, or with someone to whom you have passed on personal information about that candidate without our consent) AND even though other employment service providers might have been engaged to help to fill the position or have presented the same candidate.
- 1.4 Once they are in operation, these terms remain in force for all future engagements of our placement services unless they have been varied in writing.
- 1.5 This agreement may be executed electronically. An electronic signature made through the GP Link portal (or any other electronic acceptance under this clause 1) is valid and binding to the same extent as a handwritten signature, consistent with the Electronic Transactions Act 1999 (Cth) and the Electronic Transactions Act 2000 (NSW).

2. INTERPRETATION

Contract means the contract of (or for) employment or other engagement, whether in writing or not, between you and our candidate in relation to the placement;

Fee schedule means the pricing schedule that accompanies this Recruitment Services Agreement and outlines our fees for placement and payment terms;

Full-time placement means a placement averaging eight (8) or more sessions (approximately 35 or more hours) per week; part-time placement means a placement averaging less than that;

Guarantee period means the period of twelve (12) weeks from the date the candidate commences the placement;

Locum placement means a temporary or short-term engagement of a candidate, including fixed-term cover;

Our candidate/s means anyone: (a) who is seeking a position through us; or (b) whom we have identified as a person who might consider seeking a position through us, and about whom we are able to provide relevant information regarding that person's availability or suitability for a position;

Placement means the filling of a position that you require to be filled and, where the context so requires, includes a position that a third party requires to be filled;

Placement services means activities to facilitate the filling of a position — for example, providing contact information for a candidate, presentation of a candidate, introduction to a candidate, interviews (face to face and telephone), and assistance with medical assessment and registration requirements;

Related entity has the same meaning as in the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and applies, with the necessary changes being made, if you are not a body corporate under that Act;

Third party means a person or entity that is not a party to this agreement;

Us, our or we refers to GP Link Recruitment Australia Pty Ltd (ACN 693 259 737) and related entities;

You or your refers to the client identified at electronic signing (or in the fee schedule) and includes any of your related entities for whom you have authority (whether actual, implied or ostensible) to enter into this agreement.

3. PRESENTATION OF OUR CANDIDATES

- 3.1 The presentation of one of our candidates commences when we first forward to you any information about the candidate, whether on an identified, anonymous or pseudonymous basis.
- 3.2 When we first present one of our candidates to you, the candidate is presented on a contingent basis.

4. OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- 4.1 If we present a candidate on a contingent basis:
 - (a) we will take reasonable steps to ensure that we have the candidate's permission to present that candidate to you;
 - (b) we make no representation that:
 - (i) the candidate will be suitable for any position with you;
 - (ii) the candidate's details and information as shown in the candidate's résumé or other background are accurate, relevant, complete or up to date;
 - (iii) the candidate's nominated referees have given positive references;
 - (iv) we have any exclusive entitlement to present the candidate; or
 - (v) the candidate has not already been presented to you by other means.
- 4.2 After we have presented a candidate on a contingent basis, if you ask us (and we agree) to take steps to assess the candidate's suitability with a view to short-listing candidates for your consideration, or to conduct pre-placement investigations or evaluation:
 - (a) we will take reasonable steps to present only candidates who, in our opinion, are potentially suitable for placement with a view to short-listing or assessing them for your consideration;
 - (b) we will:
 - (i) when short-listing or evaluating our candidates, take reasonable steps to: (1) validate relevant information which we collect from our candidates — however, we make no warranties in relation to the validity of a candidate's registration(s) and/or qualifications if they were obtained outside Australia or New Zealand; (2) ensure so far as practicable that the information we provide when short-listing our candidates is substantially accurate, relevant, complete and up to date; and (3) alert you to those relevant aspects of our short-listed candidate's information that we have not been able to satisfy ourselves are substantially accurate, complete or up to date;
 - (ii) arrange interviews with selected candidates, involving our staff, and you if necessary;
 - (iii) make our short-listing or evaluation observations to you; and
 - (iv) subject to negotiating fees and charges, undertake such further tasks as are specifically agreed in writing.

5. YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

5.1 You agree:

- (a) to notify us immediately of:
 - (i) the outcome of any interview between you and our candidate;
 - (ii) any offer (or acceptance of any offer) in relation to the placement of our candidate with you, or a person on whose behalf or for whose benefit you may be acting, or to whom you have communicated any personal information about our candidate. Your notification must include details of the remuneration and benefits offered; and
 - (iii) your employment or engagement of our candidate;
- (b) to provide us with a copy of the contract, or an accurate summary of its contents, within seven days of its being agreed by both you and the candidate;
- (c) to include the following information in the contract or summary: (i) the name of the candidate; (ii) the name of the person or entity engaging the candidate; (iii) the status of the placement — whether fixed term/task, casual or non-casual, and whether as employment or in some other capacity; (iv) the location of the job; (v) the start date for the placement; (vi) the hours or sessions the candidate is to work per week; (vii) a job description describing the work that the candidate will be expected to perform; (viii) the experience, training and qualifications required of the candidate; (ix) details of any authorisation required by law or any professional body in order for the candidate to undertake the placement (including but not limited to professional registration or validation); and (x) the candidate's remuneration;
- (d) to pay us our fee for the placement of our candidate if you breach any contract for the employment or engagement of our candidate before the placement is complete and the contract terminates for that reason;
- (e) that you are responsible for satisfying yourself: (i) that our candidate has the qualifications, training and experience necessary to undertake the placement; (ii) that our candidate meets any suitability, security, trade, professional or occupational health and safety requirements imposed by law in order to work in the placement; and (iii) that our candidate meets any other inherent requirements of the placement;
- (f) that you are responsible for obtaining work permits or the appropriate authorisation for the candidate to work, including the provision of any required documentation about the placement that our candidate requires in order to apply for any necessary work permit, work authorisation, visa or entry clearance, including certification of suitability to work with any special population;
- (g) that you will not require us (or our consultants) to act in a way that would breach any applicable law, regulation or professional conduct standard that binds us; and
- (h) that you will not seek or receive any unlawful premium in respect of the engagement of our candidates, regardless of whether it is to be paid by the candidate or by any other person. For the purpose of this provision, "premium" includes a consideration, gift, allowance or forbearance for the engagement of our candidate.

6. OUR FEES AND CHARGES

- 6.1 When engaged, we will charge you the fees outlined in the fee schedule. All fees are set on a contingent basis. These fees also apply if, within a twelve-month period of our last presentation of our candidate to you, that candidate accepts a position (whether full-time, part-time, locum or in any other capacity) with: (a) you; or (b) another person (i) on whose behalf or for whose benefit you may be acting, or (ii) to whom, without our consent, you have disclosed personal information about that candidate that we have provided to you.
- 6.2 Expenses — we will notify you of our anticipated charges for advertising and any other disbursements or services provided by third parties that you expressly authorise us in writing to incur.
- 6.3 We may vary our fees and charges by giving fourteen (14) days' written notice to you. The variations apply if you tell us that you accept them, or if you ask us to help (or continue to help) to fill a position after the notice period has ended. If you do not accept the varied fees and charges, we may decline your requests for our help to fill positions, or terminate this agreement in accordance with clause 9.
- 6.4 All fees and charges quoted by us are exclusive of GST. GST at the prevailing rate will be added to tax invoices.
- 6.5 You must pay our fees and charges (including any GST component) within seven (7) days of the date of invoice. If you do not pay our fees and charges by the due date: (a) you must pay us the amount outstanding together with interest calculated on a daily basis at the rate of 10% per annum; and (b) all credit and guarantee entitlements under clause 7 and under the fee schedule are forfeited, in addition to our other rights under this agreement.
- 6.6 No claim or dispute raised with respect to our charges entitles you to set off against, or withhold payment of, the unpaid sum of our invoices.
- 6.7 We will provide a receipt to you when we receive full payment of the placement fee.
- 6.8 You indemnify us for any costs (including legal costs on a solicitor and client basis) that we incur in taking any lawful steps to obtain overdue payment. You agree that we may recover the amount of those costs from you as a debt upon production of an invoice, which shall be sufficient proof of their amount.
- 6.9 Our fees and any expenses will only be charged to you, the client. All of our fees must be paid by you, the client/employer, not the candidate, whether directly or indirectly.

- 6.10 If the client (i.e. the practice owners) withdraws their offer of a position after the candidate has signed a contract, the client must pay 50% of the total applicable recruitment fee. This payment compensates GP Link and the candidate for the significant work and investment that both parties have undertaken to reach this point. This fee applies where the position is withdrawn due to operational reasons or any factors not related to the performance or availability of the doctor.
- 6.11 For locum placements, our fee is 20% of the gross fees or billings payable to, or in respect of, the locum candidate for the assignment (exclusive of GST), invoiced weekly and payable within seven (7) days. If, within twelve (12) months of the end of a locum assignment (or of our last presentation of the locum to you), you or a related entity engages that candidate on a permanent or ongoing basis, the applicable permanent placement fee in the fee schedule becomes payable in full, in addition to locum fees already invoiced.
- 6.12 If a part-time placement increases to an average of eight (8) or more sessions (approximately 35 or more hours) per week within twelve (12) months of commencement, the difference between the part-time fee paid and the applicable full-time fee becomes payable and will be invoiced at that time.

7. GUARANTEE PERIOD

- 7.1 If, within the guarantee period of twelve (12) weeks, one of the candidates whom we have placed with you:
- (a) performs unsatisfactorily in the placement for which he or she was presented and the placement is terminated for that reason; or
 - (b) terminates the contract, then, subject to clauses 7.2 and 7.3, you will receive the following credit towards future placement services:
- Up to 4 weeks — 80% of the placement fee is credited for future placements or services
 - Between 4–8 weeks — 50% of the placement fee is credited for future placements or services
 - Between 8–12 weeks — 35% of the placement fee is credited for future placements or services
- All calculations are made on the candidate's last working day with you, not on the day they give notice of their intention to leave.

- 7.2 Our obligations under clause 7.1 arise if and only if:
- (a) the candidate was short-listed for the placement under clause 4.2;
 - (b) the placement fee was not paid using credit funds from a previous candidate;
 - (c) you have paid every invoice we have issued to you in full by its due date — the guarantee is forfeited where any invoice is or has been overdue (clause 6.5);
 - (d) you notify us immediately of any circumstance that may result in our being required to perform our obligations under this clause 7;
 - (e) you have provided accurate information on a regular basis during the guarantee period so that we can conduct confidential and timely performance checks (and counselling) with you and with the candidate for our own benefit and at our discretion. You release us from any obligation to pass on to you any information we collect from the candidate;
 - (f) you notify us in writing of the termination of the employment, engagement or contract promptly, stating the date and reason(s) for termination;
 - (g) you have made a reasonable attempt to induct and orient the candidate into the workplace;
 - (h) you have fulfilled all your other obligations arising under this agreement in respect of the placement;
 - (i) the termination of the candidate's placement is not due to: (i) any false or misleading representation made to the successful candidate in connection with the placement; (ii) redundancy, retrenchment or your operational requirements; (iii) any action on your part which might make the termination of the successful candidate's employment or engagement unlawful, harsh, unjust or unreasonable; or (iv) any breach by you of the terms of the contract with the successful candidate; and
 - (j) you agree to pay any advertising or additional charges which you authorise us to incur in locating another suitable candidate.
- 7.3 It is the responsibility of the practice to ensure the doctor has correct expectations about working conditions and about the number of patients they will see, and to ensure sufficient marketing is conducted so that the doctor is busy. If a candidate leaves during the guarantee period for a reason which is clearly outside the control of the candidate — for example, lack of support from the practice, failure to provide key conditions within the contract, or insufficient patient load (i.e. an average of fewer than 21 patients per day) — this will not result in credit funds unless the candidate has not performed satisfactorily; any credit in those circumstances is provided at our discretion.
- 7.4 If a candidate does not commence employment, any initial permanent placement fees paid will be refunded, less an administration fee of $2,500 where the candidate received registration support from us.
- 7.5 The guarantee period, if applicable, is subject to the conditions outlined in the fee schedule for the individual candidate. The provisions of clauses 4, 5, 8 and 11 of these terms apply during the guarantee period.

8. EXCLUSIONS AND LIABILITY

- 8.1 Because you are ultimately responsible for your decision to employ or engage our candidates, and because once they are employed or engaged they work under your control, supervision and direction:
- (a) (NO REPRESENTATIONS) we make no representation or guarantee that they will achieve a certain level of performance, achieve a certain outcome, solve a particular problem or attain a specific goal;
 - (b) (LIMITED LIABILITY) to the maximum extent permitted by law: (i) we are not liable to you for any indirect or consequential loss, loss of profit, loss of revenue or loss of opportunity, however caused, arising out of or in connection with a placement or this agreement; and (ii) our total aggregate liability to you arising out of or in connection with a placement or this agreement is limited to the fees actually paid by you to us for the placement concerned; and
 - (c) (IMPLIED TERMS) our liability for any breach of a term implied into this agreement by any Act of Parliament that cannot be excluded will be limited, at our option, to supplying the services again or paying the cost of having the services supplied again.
- 8.2 Nothing in this agreement excludes, restricts or modifies any right or remedy you have under the Australian Consumer Law or any other law that cannot be excluded, restricted or modified by agreement.
- 8.3 The provisions of this clause 8 continue to bind the parties after this agreement ends.

9. TERMINATION

- 9.1 Either of us can terminate this agreement by providing fourteen (14) days' written notice.
- 9.2 We can terminate this agreement immediately, and without incurring any liability to you as a result, due to:
- (a) any failure by you to pay any amounts outstanding to us; and/or
 - (b) a breach of clause 5, 11 or 12 of these terms.
- 9.3 Termination of this agreement does not affect: (a) any obligation to pay fees or charges that accrued before, or that arise from a placement, presentation or introduction made before, termination (including fees arising under clauses 6.1, 6.10, 6.11 and 6.12 after termination); or (b) clauses 8, 11 and 12, which survive termination.

10. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 10.1 If any dispute between the parties arises about the terms of this agreement or its effect, the parties will first try to resolve the dispute by negotiation in good faith. If, after a reasonable time (not exceeding 21 days), the dispute has not been resolved, either party may refer the dispute to mediation administered by the Resolution Institute (or another mediator agreed between the parties), with the costs of the mediator shared equally. Nothing in this clause ousts the jurisdiction of a court or tribunal with respect to the subject matter of the dispute, or prevents us from commencing proceedings to recover unpaid fees.

11. PRIVACY & CONFIDENTIALITY

- 11.1 You agree to preserve the privacy of personal information concerning any of our candidates whose personal information has been provided to you, or accessed by you, to a standard not less than that prescribed by the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), and additionally to hold yourself as a trustee of the promise to do so for the benefit of our candidate.
- 11.2 So far as the law allows, you must maintain the confidentiality of any information that we communicate to you and identify as being confidential (including the fact that one of our candidates may be seeking a new position). You must not use or disclose confidential information that we communicate to you without our written consent, except that you may use confidential information that we have communicated to you about our candidate for the purpose of engaging our services.
- 11.3 You must identify any information that you require us to keep confidential. If you do not expressly identify information that you communicate to us as being confidential, we may use and disclose it as we think fit for the purpose of providing or offering our placement services to you, and you must indemnify us against any claims (including costs) for breach of confidentiality that may flow from our use or disclosure of it.
- 11.4 For the purposes of clause 11.3, the following information is expressly identified as being confidential: information about (a) your current staff; and (b) your human resources strategies. We will not use or disclose it without your consent.
- 11.5 If you do not employ or engage a candidate, you must, on our request, securely destroy or delete all personal information about that candidate that we have provided to you (and direct anyone to whom you have disclosed it to do the same).
- 11.6 You must notify us promptly of any actual or suspected loss of, or unauthorised access to or disclosure of, personal information about our candidates that we have provided to you.

12. NON-SOLICITATION OF OUR STAFF

- 12.1 During the term of this agreement and for twelve (12) months after it ends, you must not, without our prior written consent, directly or indirectly solicit, employ or engage any of our staff or consultants who were materially involved in providing services to you. If you do, you must pay us a fee equal to the full-time overseas placement fee set out in the fee schedule, which the parties agree is a genuine pre-estimate of our loss.

13. WAIVER

- 13.1 If we do not take action to enforce or require strict compliance with your obligations and responsibilities under these terms, or if we grant you any extension or indulgence in the performance of your obligations, we may still exercise all our rights as though they were fully available to us.

14. JURISDICTION

- 14.1 These terms are governed by, and take effect in accordance with, the laws in force in New South Wales, Australia, and the parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New South Wales.

15. SEVERANCE

- 15.1 If any of these terms is held to be invalid in any way, or unenforceable, it will be severed and the remaining terms will not be affected or impaired, but will be construed so as to most nearly give effect to the intent of the parties at the time the agreement was originally executed.

16. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

- 16.1 These terms, together with the fee schedule and the execution page generated at electronic signing, represent the entire agreement between us and you in relation to its subject matter. All implied and statutory terms, to the extent to which they are inconsistent with these terms, are excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law.
- 16.2 By accepting the terms set out in this document, you acknowledge that neither we, nor anyone acting on our behalf, has made any warranty or representation to you in relation to the matters covered by this agreement which is not fully set out in these terms, that you have not relied upon any such warranty or representation, that you have read these terms together with the fee schedule, and that you have understood them.