PTY LTD

Australia Medical Recruitment
Pricing Schedule 2025

As recruiters, we have one goal: ‘Matching the best GPs with the best GP jobs’

How do we do it?

Matching

We work to achieve a good match between a doctor and a practice. Our experience shows that a good match means doctors stay longer and work more effectively. We aim to present you with candidates that fit with the needs and culture of your practice as closely as possible. To achieve this, we advertise widely and filter applications to identify GPs who meet your requirements therefore only presenting you with candidates who have a genuine interest in working with you. Historically every 3 interviews we schedule between you and the GP, at least 1 successful placement is made.

Contractual arrangements

If both the practice owners and the GPs express an interest in working together, GP Link will negotiate between the parties the terms of the contract and will assist in agreeing the contractual details. We aim to minimise the work required by the practice and aim to deliver a signed contract as quickly as possible. We encourage candidates to commit to ongoing placements to build relationships with a patient base.

Registration support for doctors based overseas

Most doctors sourced from overseas require extensive support for a period of 6-9 months as they work on arrangements to come to Australia. For most of this period, our GPs require our support several times a week to navigate the complex labyrinth of regulation as well as covering off everything they need to move to a new country. This support includes, but is not limited to:

- Preparation of AMC/EPIC documentation
- Liaison with the RACGP, AHPRA and Medicare where we act as authorised agent of the doctor and deal with most issues that arise Assistance with visas and migration (involvement of migration agents incurs an additional cost) .

The GP Link Difference

We make matches that are made to last

We want to place GPs in jobs where they stay for the long term because they are happy and engaged in the practice. Rather than making money by placing the same GP in clinic after clinic, we aim to find the best match so that doctors are more likely to stay longer term. We also rely heavily on referrals from our candidates, so we want to make sure they are 100% happy with our service.

We usually only submit each candidate to 2-3 practices. We don't just send you a barrage of CVs and expect you to sort through the rest. We aim to send you only GPs that are interested in your GP job and who we think are a good match for your practice.

We only work in General Practice

We are not a recruitment agency that just dabbles in GP jobs but mostly works with hospital doctors. All of our recruitment and consulting work is 100% focused on General Practice. We are focused and committed to the provision of recruitment and business solutions for Australian GP Practices.

We support the whole process

We check that GPs have the right type of registration, and that they will be able to obtain a provider number to work in your practice.

1.1 Recruitment fees

Permanent Placement Payment (Full-Time Overseas General Practitioner) 50:50 Payment

The total fee for an overseas GP is payable in two payments. The first 50% payment is invoiced when the doctor commits to a position. The second payment is invoiced once the doctor commences work for you.

For local Australian General Practitioners the full payment is invoiced at the end of the first week from when the placed doctor commences work.

All paymentst are exclusive of GST.

1st Payment	Invoiced once the GP candidate accepts your contract	$12,500	$0
2nd Payment	Invoiced at the end of the GPs first week of work	$12,500	$21,000

Please note the following terms which apply to this payment option:

For Australian candidates, the 1st payment will be invoiced when the candidate commences working.

A 12-week guarantee period applies for placements – so you will be provided with credit towards future placements, in line with the conditions outlined in section 7 of the Recruitment Services Agreement, and the details below:

If our candidate leaves the practice within the following period:

- Up to 4 weeks 80% of the placement fee is credited for future placements or services
- Between 4-8 weeks 50% of the placement fee is credited for future placements or services
- Between 8-12 weeks 35% of the placement fee is credited for future placements or services

• Please note all calculations are made on the candidates last working day with the practice, not on the day they give notice of their intention to leave.

If GP Link has not provided placement to the company within 12 months, the % of placement fee as applicable will be refunded on request.

Any candidates based overseas that we present to you will be eligible for specialist registration (VR) once they have worked in Australia within 6-12 months (full-time). Most candidates already based in Australia will hold or be immediately eligible for specialist registration (VR).

By agreeing to these terms, you agree that you (and/or other related parties) will not under any circumstances require a doctor to contribute to payment of our recruitment fees – either directly or indirectly.
